Notice dated 4th October 1921.

The undersigned Kasaba Kondappa, residing in Huvadigar lane, Bangalore City, owns two vacant sites bearing Nos. 11 and 12 in Chamrajpet, Chikballapur Town, these sites were purchased by him on Government auction in the year 1893 and ever since these are in his possession and he has been paying Municipal taxes for the same and got receipts thereto. Some two or three years back the undersigned on some account executed a sale deed for nominal sake in the name of Chellanna, Patel of Ajvara village, Nandi Hobli, in spite of this the undersigned possesses a lot of proof in the form of letters written to him by Chellanna for having executed the above bond nominally. The undersigned now learns that, since this Chellanna is no more now. His heirs are trying to dispose of the above sites fraudulently. It is therefore hereby informed to the public that if anywere to go in for the sites from the heirs of Chellanna without the knowledge of the undersigned, will have to be responsible for any damages or loss that may be incurred by him.
